sworn in as a laborer on the House-side, in the Capitol last Monday and was totified Friday of the same week, that his services were no longer required. Mr.

A famous Washington gambler, it is said, will soon go to preaching.
He would have begun it ten years ago, but he has only just now found a cure for his cough. It is Dr.
Bull's Cough Syrup.

Miss Ida M. Lewis, has been appointed as a teacher in the public schools, on the recommendation of Dr. Francis, Miss Lewis is a citizen of this city who has a large circle of friends, who feel grateful to the doctor for such worthy recognition of a district graduate.

A very satisfactory report from principals of the white night school has been submitted to Supt. Powell, for general information of the Public. We are now waiting to see the same from the colored principals with such careful prepared, and essentially detained information.

Labor, at an estimated cost of $80,000 this city at $10 a share $1 down, and one dollar monthly; and as reported, the Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather last Wednesday Evening, Smith's Saloon at 440, 43 st.

s. w. was a scene of brilliancy. The Feternals headed by Mr. Edward Webster and several charming young ladies spent a merry evening.

It is regretted much to learn from a report by the evening Star in its issue of Monday evening last, that any one of the boys should get seriously hurt in a play or otherwise; and it is regretted more, to have that reporter to falsely implicate those colored boys, Abraham and Lemuel Johnson, and Edward Adison, if he had not a just reason for so doing.
A careful examination, into the facts and evidence of the case, is fair play in country and especially in Washington city.

benefits of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup that cures all cough, cold, bronchitis, and sore throat.

The following ladies have kind-mencing Wednesday Dec. 22nd, continuing to Saturday Jan. 1st:

Smallwood, Cora Thomas, Bettie
Smith, Mrs. J. W. Dabney.

C. H. I. Taylor, of Kansas City, Kas., assistant city Attorney, is in the city. Mr. Taylor, is the gentleman who nominated W. D. Kelly for Auditor of Kansas. Mr.
Taylor is one of the most popular men of the West. He called at the BEE office Friday and informed us that the rejection of Mr. Matthews by the republican Senate is effecting the colored vote in the West.

The severe snow storm on Wednesday evening last did not diminish the extensive plans of the very fashionable marriage of Sydney C. A. Johnson to Miss Nancy A. Smith. The marriage took place at the residence of the gentlemen's parents, 621 3rd St.
s. w., and the ceremony was performed by Rev. R. H. G. Dyson, in the presence of a large number of his friends.

Robert Taylor, the son of Mr.
Reuben Taylor, a respectable citizen of South Washington, was arrested a few weeks ago in Jersey City, charged with stealing a check of $51. It will be remembered that it was reported that he sent one of the checks on here to John H. Gordon, who went on there and turned states evidence. His father, Mr.
Taylor, left for Jersey City on Wednesday evening last.

Mr. W. Handy Johnson, who has been employed in the Surgeon General's office for several years, tendered his resignation Wednesday morning and left for Florida Friday morning, where he has accepted of a position which will pay him more than he received in the department. Mr. Johnson is a young man well known in this city and comes from one of the best families in the city. His many friends wish him success in his new field of labor.

THE COLUMBIA BICYCLE CAL- ENDAR FOR 1887.

The Columbia Bicycle Calendar for '87, just issued by the Pope Manufacturing company of Boston, is a truly artistic and elegant work in chromo-lithography and the letterpress. Each day of the year appears upon a separate slip with a quotation pertaining to 'cycling from leading publications and prominent personages. The notable 'cycling events are given; and concise opinions of the highest medical authorities; words from practical wheelmen, including clergymen and other professional gentlemen; the rights of 'cyclers upon the roads; general wheel statistics; the benefits of tricycling for ladies; extracts from 'cycling poems; and much other information interesting alike to the 'cyclist and to the general reader. In fact it is in miniature a virtual encyclopedia upon this universally utilized modern steed.

The calendar proper is mounted upon a back of heavy board, upon which is exquisitely executed in oil color effect, by G. H. Buek, of New York, an allegorical scene, represented the earth resting among the clouds, with Thomas Stephens, in heroic size, mounted upon his Columbia bicycle, circumnavigating the globe. The atmospheric lights and shades of sunlight and moonshine are charmingly vivid, yet artistically toned and softened. A smaller portion of the board is devoted to a picture of a mounted lady tricyclist, speeding over a pleasant country road. As work of convenient art, the Columbia Calendar is worthy of a place in office, library or parlor.

SOUTH WASHINGTON.

A talk with Mrs. John Taylor, immediately after a report of the burglary and robbery of their residence No. 203, Virginia Avenue, s. w., on Monday night last, would show, that you might not include all the world in the suspicion before the thief is found; not even necessarily the "colored sneak thief." For the situation of the house, and circumstance that surrounded the whole transactions, showed that the thief not only knew the range of the house, but the whereabouts of the family on that evening, and was too, on intimate terms with a large and dangerous looking dog that was locked up in the dining room down in the basement, through which the burglar went up into the house from which he took $27, in money, and two suits of clothes.

Mr. John Taylor was away at the hotel, where he goes on duty at 9 o'clock, Mrs. Taylor, and her sister Amanda Johnson, and brother Samuel Holmes, were away attending the last business meeting for the year at the Enon Baptist church, for the month of Dec. The burglar entered by way of the front basement door, by pressing it open, and bursting off the lock, and escaped by raising the back parlor window, and taking off the blinds and placing them upon the back door steps.

Besides this dangerously described dog, there was a little 12 year old girl in the house. The house was left with a large bright light burning in the back parlor, and the front parlor windows open, which shone beautifully from front to back.

Hodge I. Brown, was arrested at his residence 619 3d st., on Saturday night, the 4th charged with stealing whisky and other articles and was placed in the lock up until Monday morning, the 6th at which time he was sentenced by Judge Snell to two months in jail.

The very fashionable marriage of John C. Thuston of Indianapolis, Indiana, and Miss Emma Webster of Providence was a grand affair.
The wedding took place at the residence of the young lady's parents, No. 152, Garfield Avenue.

The Rev. Dr. Laws, pastor of the Virginia Avenue Baptist church and "news editor of the Washington BEE," left this city last evening, by the Band O. R. R. on a visit to the Wesley portion of Pennsylvania, where he will visit, the cities Pittsburgh and Washington.
He carries with him the best wishes of the people of his charge, and his host of ministerial, and other friends in the community.

A mong the many teachers who are expected home for the holidays are Miss Lena Gantson, Ida Allen, and Ellen Pierce.

LOUISE TO CLARA.

Dear Clara:—I shall discuss with you this week the colored pulpit. Now, really tell me what do you think of the colored pulpit? I have often thought it would be a good idea to discuss a few of these sermons sometime in the Household. Mr. Richardson's paper before the Philomathian society a few weeks ago elicited the greatest applause. In considering the pulpit, he thought that these blood and thunder sermons should be dispensed with. Of course I agree with him. Across the street there is a Methodist minister, the poor fellow has about lost his lungs. He is a good man but I tell you Clara his eccentricities and other non sensical actions have caused him to lose his health. There goes Harry Black, I understand that he has got religion now. In conversation with him a few days ago, he informed me that his religion was purely theatrical; that the colored pulpit reminded him of a boy that was raised by his father. What that was I am unable to tell. I suppose Harry can inform you. Mr.
Richardson in his paper presented some fine points, and the weak attempt at answering it by Rev.
Welch was very amusing. The argument of Rev. Welch was based upon the actions of the old school. One would presume the gentleman was an old school minister. Indeed dear Clara, his argument lead me to such a conclusion. Revs. Anderson and Johnson are men of progressive ideas, perhaps they have a different idea of hell and heaven from Rev.
Welch. Their argument about fire and brimstone is stated as a fact, but I suppose Rev. Welch would give it to us straight. The pulpit can be improved. It is about time for all old school ministers to retire. Understand me now, I don't mean because a minister is old in age, but I mean those men who still preach hell and brimstone, and excitable declarations without sense or reason. The pulpit can do a great deal in advancing the race, but it will never be able to do anything so long as we have these block heads in the lead.

THE MARRIAGE

of Miss Lulie E. Ford to Mr. Geo.
W. Jackson was consummated last Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's parents.
The affair was very quiet on account of the death of dear George's father, who died at home in the west two weeks ago. Lulie looked really sweet and George was a piece of perfection. You know I was smitten with him myself, but Lulie was the choice of his affections, hence I was left in despair. Lulie was the baby of all her folks. She has been raised tenderly and with care. Indeed I loved her as a sister and often I have listened to her sweet voice, which was as enchanting as the siren's song. Her wedding trousseau was handsome. It was the gift of her brother Robert whose pitiful eyes streamed tears on the parting of his sister from home.
How sad it is to lose those we love, even when they are united in marriage. Of course there were only a few of her immediate friends present to wish her a long life and many days of marriage happiness. Mr. Jackson is a young man and has a host of friends who were not able to be present sent a token of their regards. The bride's and groom's cakes were the center of attraction, of which we all freely partook.
Maud informed me that she had a pleasant dream of the one to whom she is engaged. I am inclined to believe that if he doesn't make up his mind soon, I am thinking some one will be looked over. I saw in the BEE last week reference made to the lady of the NORMAL SCHOOL.

I have an idea who it is. There is something that our mutual friend desires to accomplish and in doing so an attempt was made to get rid of one of the finest ladies in our school. I am pleased to know that Mr. Cook came to her rescue. It is well that we should keep a watchful eye of our surroundings and even watch those who pretend to love us most.
A great deal of interest is manifested in the Household relative to Mr. Matthews' confirmation.
I can assure you that we all are interested.

I desire to state to the Household that I wish the names of all who will receive or keep open house New Years' day. If there are any, I request them to send me their names and those who will receive with them. Also a description of their toilette. Address all letters to "Louise and Clara," care of the BEE. I want them no later than Tuesday.
Write to me soon Clara, and remember

Yours lovingly,
LOUISE.
